)	TRUSTEE'S OBJECTION TO
)	CLAIMED EXEMPTIONS
Debtor)

COMES NOW the Trustee, Nancy L. James, and objects to the Debtors' claim of exemptions in all property listed on their Scheduled C as follows:

1. The Debtor claims certain funds in bank accounts as exempt as awards under a personal injury settlement and/or pension income. The Trustee is not able to determine if the same is entitled to an exemption and therefore objects to the same.

2. To the extent that the Debtors are attempting to claim an exemption in excess of the value permitted by federal or state law, the Trustee objects to the assertion of such an exemption;

3. To the extent that the Debtors are attempting to claim an exemption for property for which no exemption is permitted under federal or state law, the Trustee objects to the assertion of such an exemption;

4. To the extent that the Debtors do not describe an asset or other item of property for which an exemption is claimed, with particularity, the Trustee objects to the assertion of such an exemption;

5. To the extent that the actual value of an asset exceeds the valuation of the asset by the Debtors, the Trustee objects to the claim of any exemption; and,

6. To the extent that the Debtors have failed to cooperate with the Trustee regarding the investigation of their financial affairs and/or concealed any property, the Trustee objects to any claims of exemptions by Debtors.

The Trustee is objecting, in part, to preserve her rights to object pending receipt of more information about the Debtors' assets. She is also objecting in part to preserve any equity the estate may have in property that is subject to the Debtors' exemption. The Trustee reserves the right to assert any other basis for her objection or otherwise amend this objection as she may determine to be appropriate at a later date.
